Game Tonight Decides Championship

Yale and Princeton Will Battle for Supremacy in Intercollegiate Basketball League—Deadlock Tie for First Place for Three Weeks—Dartmouth Has Been Unable to Win One Game in the Race.

Princeton and Yale still neck and neck for the lead in the intercollegiate basketball league race, will settle the question of supremacy in an all-deciding game tonight when the pair meet in New Haven. It will not be the last game of the year for either team, but such is equally sure of winning its final encounter so that tonight's game will without question decide the title holder. By defeating Dartmouth twice and Princeton once, Yale maintained itself in the tie for first place, a deadlock which neither team has been able to break for three weeks. Each has won and lost two games.

Cornell assured itself of at least a tie for second place in the league standing by defeating Columbia at Ithaca, on Friday. The Ithacans finished their season Monday night when they faced Dartmouth at Ithaca. Columbia by reason of a bad reversal of form, will find worse lodgment than it has ever had in the league. Four place is the best the team from New York can get and it looks as if it will finish the season with only an even break, but it has hardly expected to defeat the all-powerful Tiger five when the two meet at Princeton on Friday.

Pennsylvania brought its season to an end in the game with Yale, and has only three victories out of ten starts to its credit. The Quakers beat Dartmouth twice and Columbia once. In the extent of their prowess as conquerors, Dartmouth is the most unfortunate team that ever played in the league and there is little prospect that it will win a game in its season's work. It meets Cornell and Yale this week and defeat in each game seems a foregone conclusion. The Quakers have eight defeats in eight starts as its unenviable record.

McNichol of Pennsylvania, with his full team, has secured 116 points for his team and the chances are that he will return the top individual scorer of the year, although Brown, of Cornell forward, with 102 points, has only three victories out of ten starts to its credit. The Quakers beat Dartmouth twice and Columbia once. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

FAIRLY ACTIVE MARKET.

Stocks Made Further Progress Toward Higher Levels.

New York, March 8.—Stocks made further decided progress towards higher levels today on a fairly large volume of business, some of which was due to the representation of the new week began with numerous indications of general trade improvement, particularly in the steel and allied industries. Advances from the middle west pointed to greater activity at leading manufacturing centers and the United States Steel corporation, which has reported to have increased its output to 75 per cent of capacity.

Product of the steel corporation's unfilled tonnage which will be issued on Wednesday, suggest a gain of not less than 200,000 tons over February, which in turn suggests an increase of 412,000 tons over last December. Steel, with several of the leading railway issues and Amalgamated Copper, led the market throughout the session. Realizing for profits caused some minor recessions in the later dealing, but net gains of one to two points were made.

Coppers and the usual miscellaneous group of specialties were put forward at odd intervals, the rise in the metal being being stated by the New York large exports. Specific reasons accompanied the rise of certain stocks, notably Canadian Pacific, which was being sold by the New York market, which showed a pronounced decrease in its deficit for January. Stocks and bonds of the several railroads comprising the Great Northern, New Haven, which showed a pronounced decrease in its deficit for January. Stocks and bonds of the several railroads comprising the Great Northern, New Haven, which showed a pronounced decrease in its deficit for January.

Apart from vague peace rumors, the foreign situation was not a factor in the day's events. Foreign exchange was somewhat strong on the large export demand. The government crop report showed a decrease of 2.07 per cent in farm reserves of grain.

Grains were strong, despite further extensive selling for foreign interests. Total sales, par value, were $2,135,000. Panama coupon 3s advanced 3-4 per cent on call.
